2. Addressing Cultural Consideration in School

2.1 School Requirements:

GVIS have in place the following elements that address cultural consideration:

1. To foster a respectful and inclusive environment, our school provides a cultural awareness induction for all new staff, parents, and students. We are also committed to ongoing learning and will offer annual refresher training for our returning community members.

2. Vetting Resources: We have established processes and procedures for vetting, reviewing, and selecting teaching and learning resources as per Section 2.3 Learning Resources and Activities of this policy.
3. Observation of UAE Cultural Practices: School is strictly adhering to UAE cultural practices, including the daily singing of the national anthem, observance of official holidays, and the exclusive display of the UAE flag and leaders' portraits as mandated by the official protocol manual.
4. Monitoring of School Communications: School has proactively monitored all official and unofficial communication channels—including newsletters, social media, and parent groups—to ensure our adherence to the cultural consideration policy.
5. Response Mechanism for Non-Compliance: School also has established a clear processes and procedures for reporting and responding to any breaches of this policy in school.

2.2 Community Conduct:

All members of the GVIS community are expected to uphold standards of behaviour that demonstrate mindfulness and respect for cultural considerations of the UAE. The following guidelines outline the expected conduct

1. All GVIS community members must uphold and honor the cultural values, traditions, and societal norms of the United Arab Emirates (UAE).
2. All school members must avoid directly or indirectly expressing or supporting inappropriate stereotypes, biases, or assumptions regarding the UAE or the wider region.
3. Refraining from promoting or engaging in behavior, practices, or displays that may be perceived as culturally insensitive, including but not limited to the use of drugs or alcohol, smoking, acts of violence, promotion of alternative gender identities or sexual orientations, and any form of indoctrination.
4. Must not use or display symbols, colors, or imagery representing movements, ideologies, or groups (political, social, or extremist religious) that may be considered culturally inappropriate.

8. All stakeholders must ensure that all school-organized activities and celebrations remain culturally appropriate and aligned with this policy.
9. Adhering to the laws of the UAE by conducting themselves accordingly.

2.3 Learning Resources and Activities:

Grace Valley Indian School has established a Resource Selection Committee to ensure that all teaching and learning resources are vetted for cultural consideration. The school also ensured the following while reviewing and selecting any teaching and learning resource:

1. Teaching and learning resources must be appropriate and relevant for the targeted age group of learners.
2. All materials, including topics, content, and images, must align with UAE culture, values, and national identity. Content that is culturally insensitive or promotes undesirable behaviors—such as the use of drugs or alcohol, violence, smoking, gambling, or references to non-traditional gender identities, sexual orientation, or ideological indoctrination—shall not be permitted.
3. Political topics must be handled in accordance with the guidelines and themes outlined in the approved UAE Social Studies curriculum.

4. School has implemented a documented review process to assess and confirm the appropriateness of all educational resources. This process also included final approval from the head librarian, the Resource Selection Committee, and the principal.

2.4 Topics in the Approved Curriculum:

Grace Valley Indian School embedded a system to ensure the following when addressing potentially controversial topics:

1. When the school's approved curriculum includes topics such as biological reproduction, human evolution, or sex education, these subjects are to be delivered in a factual and age-appropriate manner. The use of figurative descriptions or scientific images is to be limited to what is necessary to achieve the required learning outcomes, ensuring respectful and culturally sensitive presentation.
 - a. Parents are informed in advance of any related lessons, including the topics to be discussed and whether the content will form part of assessments. Parents may request an exemption for their child from attending the specific lesson through a written notification submitted to the school.
2. In cases where the curriculum covers areas such as revolutions, wars, or other potentially violent or sensitive historical events, the content is presented objectively and within the appropriate educational context. Any related imagery or explanatory resources are selected with care to ensure relevance, respect, and cultural consideration.
3. When potentially sensitive or controversial topics form part of the resources or activities required for high-stakes examinations, like CBSE Board examinations, the school seeks approval from ADEK prior to instruction. Lessons involving such material are designed and delivered with professionalism and cultural awareness.
4. When potentially sensitive or controversial topics form part of the resources or activities required for high-stakes examinations, the school seeks approval from ADEK prior to instruction. Lessons involving such material are designed and delivered with professionalism and cultural awareness.
